

Privacy Policy for nAPPo Trails

Effective Date: July 11, 2026

Privacy Policy

nAPPo Trails ("the App") is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains what information the App collects, how it is used, and how it is protected.

1. Information We Collect

The App is designed to respect your privacy.

The App does not collect, request, store, or transmit any personal information, including but not limited to:

- Name
- Postal address
- Email address
- Telephone number
- Payment or banking information
- Government-issued identification
- Any other personally identifiable information

2. Location Services

The App may request permission to access your device's location.

Location information is used only to identify Napoleonic Wars historical sites and landmarks located near your current position and to enhance your experience while using the App.

Your location is processed only while the App is in use and is not collected, stored, transmitted, or shared with the developer or any third party.

You may disable location access at any time through your device settings. If location access is disabled, nearby sites distance will not be displayed and no navigation route will be proposed but you can still be able to see all sites in the app screen.

3. User Account

If you wish to keep a record of the historical sites you have visited, you may create a local account by choosing:

- a username; and
- a password.

These credentials are stored only on your own device.

They are never transmitted to the developer, to cloud services, or to any external server.

5. Data Sharing
